Committee Reports
Community Forum Committee	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Next forum is a Community Forum geared to parents and students • SPRINGFIELD HIGH SCHOOL principal, Dr. Smith has been very supportive of this endeavor. The drama department will do the production • The event will be held at the John Legend Theater, November 1, 2018 7:00 PM. • The forum will have a music component, the Junk in the Trunk Presentation, Brain Disease Vignettes, and a video being mimed by students • An in Plain Sight Room will be set up for parents only • Carey is to check into setting up a cash donation box with proceeds going to SPRINGFIELD HIGH SCHOOL Drama Department. • Flyers to come
Social Media Committee	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Social Media Committee is now meeting monthly. • Interested in developing and running an Awareness Campaign • If you are holding a substance abuse related event please send Eric Mata the relevant information and he will post it on the Coalition website. eric.mata@caresource.com • The committee wants information included on the website to be intentional • Videos supporting the MENTAL HEALTH AND RECOVERY BOARD levy are being shot to be included on the website • Video tape the upcoming Community Forum, also consider streaming live the forum production on the Public Access Channel • Suggest that we look into having videos shown on the Public Access Channel
Data Collection Committee	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Currently working on collecting Narcan data.
Discussion/Other	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Rick Jones postponed the Comedy Night at the Community until spring. More time was needed to work on material for show. • Group likes the new agenda format • Carey would like to trail a new format for the Coalition meetings. Once a quarter we will come together as the full group, the other months we will still come together in one location but break down into sub-committees/work group. This will allow for those in one group to liaison with a member in another group to tap their expertise. All meetings will have at least a short period of time for announcements/updates.
